

CATHOLIC YOUTH ORGANIZATION BROOKLYN DIOCESE NEWSLETTER

Volume II—Issue I - SUMMER 2017

Welcome

Dear CYO Community,

Happy Summer!! I hope everyone is enjoying this time of year. As we enjoy the summer days we here at CYO begin to plan for the upcoming 2017-18 season. This issue of the CYO newsletter will review the 2016-17 season and provide information for upcoming events for the new season.

I had the great pleasure of attending the PLAY LIKE A CHAMPION Sports as Ministry Conference at the University of Notre Dame in June. The Play like a Champion Educational Program is a researched-based, child-centered curriculum designed to:

- Help us recognize the spiritual nature of sports
- Educate youth sport coaches to be effective ministers
- Promote the moral and character development of our youth
- Foster a safe and nurturing sport environment for all children.

I will be sharing materials from the conference with the leaders and coaches in our CYO program over the next few months. We will be planning a number of Educational programs and workshops, A Catholic Mission for Coaches and Parents, with our leaders, coaches and parents. Details will be provided as we begin to work with the Play Like A Champion Staff.

In this newsletter is information that was shared from the Sport at the Service of Humanity, The First Global Conference on Faith & Sport, Vatican 2016. Please share it with the members of your CYO program it and follow Pope Francis' words:

"I ask that you live your sport as a gift from God, an opportunity not only to bring your talents to fruition, but also as a responsibility"

On September 9th, 2017 the Diocese of Brooklyn will be hosting CATHOLIC DAY AT CITI FIELD. There will be a morning Mass at Citi Field at 9:45am followed by fun, food and games. Tickets for this event which includes the Mets vs Reds game that evening are available by calling 718-559-3027 or visiting mets.com/CatholicNight. See newsletter for further information.

I am asking that CYO participants attending the Mass to wear their parish uniform as they will receive a special blessing at the Mass. Further information on CYO's involvement in this special diocesan event will be shared with the parish athletic representatives throughout the summer.

God Bless,

Robert Caldera

Executive Director, CYO

New Class Enshrined Into CYO Hall of Fame

By Jim Mancari—The Tablet

The fourth annual Catholic Youth Organization (CYO) Hall of Fame ceremony recognized 10 deserving individuals who have dedicated their lives to youth sports in the Diocese of Brooklyn.

The event was held June 2 at the Immaculate Conception Center, Douglaston, honoring individuals who have made significant contributions to the CYO as a player, coach, clergy member, coordinator, official, parish representative, athletic director or other member of the community.

The award ceremony followed Mass in the chapel celebrated by Auxiliary Bishop Witold Mroziewski.

St. Stan's, Ozone Park, and St. Thomas Aquinas, Flatlands, each won the Kevin Mahoney Sportsmanship Award; Rich Gordillo was the recipient of the Bobby Cummings Memorial Award; and eighth grader Brandon Diaz from St. Andrew Avellino, Flushing, won this year's CYO Essay Contest, which includes a $1,000 scholarship to his high school choice, Holy Cross, Flushing.

The following inductees make up this year's CYO Hall of Fame class:

Upon moving his family to Our Lady of Grace parish, Howard Beach, in 1994, he began directing the CYO soccer program there. The program has teams in grade levels one through eight as well as an instructional program for four- and five-year-olds.

Mary Burns began her CYO coaching career assisting the swimming clinic program at St. Brendan, Midwood, which later combined with St. Mark, Sheepshead Bay, and Resurrection, Gerritsen Beach.

She then moved on to Good Shepherd parish, Marine Park, and began as a volunteer timer in the stands. She soon became the swimming athletic director at the parish – a role she enjoyed for 20 years.

Father William Dulaney was involved with the athletic programs at St. Sebastian, Woodside, and St. Margaret, Middle Village, before settling in the past 10 years at St. Gregory the Great, Bellerose. At St. Gregory's, he served as the moderator for the parish's athletic association.

He always set aside time during his busy schedule to attend CYO sporting events, including blessing the field on Opening Day of the baseball and softball season. Father Dulaney passed away earlier this year and inducted posthumously.

Bob Farrell attended St. Joseph's School, Astoria, and Most Holy Trinity H.S., Williamsburg, where he was a member of the school's track team. He coached baseball and basketball in the early days of the St. Joseph's CYO program and continued coaching there for over 50 years.

Additionally, he served as the St. Joseph's parish athletic representative for 20 years. His contributions to CYO also include his time as a basketball referee, a position he filled for over 25 years.

Phil Favata began his involvement with CYO playing basketball growing up in Staten Island. In the 1970s, he formed the intramural sports program at Blessed Sacrament parish, Jackson Heights, and helped turn the parish auditorium into a basketball facility.

He then coached baseball and basketball for over 40 years at St. Adalbert, Elmhurst; Our Lady of the Miraculous Medal, Ridgewood; and St. Stan's, Maspeth. He also offered his time to the Kiwanis and PAL leagues as a coach.

Ellyn Hausdorf played CYO basketball at Sacred Heart School, Bayside, and soon fell in love with the sport of volleyball while at Bayside H.S. As a junior, she coached fifth grade girls' volleyball at St. Andrew Avellino, Flushing.

She later became the volleyball athletic director at Our Lady of the Snows, North Floral Park, once that CYO program was formed. She has spent the past 25 years in that role, in addition to her coaching varsity and junior varsity volleyball at St. Mary's H.S., Manhasset, L.I., for the last 20 years.

Denise Hillig played CYO basketball at Holy Trinity, Whitestone, and continued her athletic career playing volleyball, basketball and softball at St. Agnes H.S., College Point. At Iona College, New Rochelle, she played four years of softball.

For the past 29 years, she has taught at St. John's Prep, Astoria. During her tenure, she has coached JV volleyball, varsity softball and JV basketball. She also is serving in her 14th year as the president of the Diocese of Brooklyn's GCHSAA.

Harry McMahon Sr. has been a coach in the St. Camillus/St. Virgilius, Broad Channel, soccer program for over 40 years. When he's not coaching, he can often be seen lining the field before games and cleaning the bleachers for fans.

He is a veteran of the U.S. Army and an active member of the local American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars. He is also involved with smooth operation of the Broad Channel Athletic Club.

Maryellen Quinn participated in CYO swimming, volleyball, softball and basketball at Our Lady of the Blessed Sacrament, Bayside, and was a member of the volleyball, softball and swim teams at St. Agnes H.S., College Point. She started coaching swimming at the parish at age 16, and went on to coach volleyball and coordinate the parish's volleyball program.

She then moved to St. Gregory the Great, Bellerose, where she coached volleyball, swimming and softball and became the girls' parish athletic representative. She also served as CYO volleyball coordinator as well as a volleyball coach, referee, chairperson and assigner in the GCHSAA.

Ray Schick was a member of the basketball and baseball teams at Our Lady of the Miraculous Medal, Ridgewood, and played basketball at Msgr. McClancy H.S., East Elmhurst. During his high school and college years, he coached basketball at his home parish and at St. Teresa, Woodside.

He later became part of the St. Stan's, Maspeth, CYO program as a basketball and baseball coach. He is also a basketball official for the CYO and CHSAA. Additionally, he helped start the CYO Summer Basketball League, which is now in its fourth season.

CYO Gives a Cheer
By Jim Mancari—The Tablet

CYO hosted its second annual cheerleading showcase March 4 at Msgr. McClancy H.S., East Elmhurst. Teams from Sacred Heart, Glendale; American Martyrs, Bayside; St. Gregory the Great, Bellerose; Immaculate Conception, Jamaica; St. Margaret, Middle Village; St. Stanislaus, Maspeth; Our Lady of the Snows, North Floral Park; and St. Luke, Whitestone, performed their best cheers. The McClancy cheer squad also made a special appearance.

Character Education Through Sports

VATICAN 2016
SPORT at the service
OF HUMANITY

THE FIRST
GLOBAL CONFERENCE
ON FAITH & SPORT

VISION

To launch a movement that inspires every organization and participant in sport to live, think and act in accordance with the "Sport at the Service of Humanity Declaration of Principles."

MISSION

To validate and endorse the "Sport at the Service of Humanity Declaration of Principles" – a set of guiding values that articulates how sport and faith can harness their combined influence to serve the greater good – and to develop partnerships to put the principles into action.

DECLARATION OF PRINCIPLES

PREAMBLE

We believe that:

- sport has the power to celebrate our common humanity, regardless of faith, race, culture, beliefs, gender and ability;
- sport can bring us together – to meet one another across borders and boundaries, to learn to compete as friends, to respect and trust one another even in opposition;
- sport has the power to teach positive values and enrich lives. Every one of us, who plays, organizes and supports sport, has the opportunity to be transformed by it and to transform others;
- sport challenges us to stretch ourselves further than we thought possible;
- sport can be distorted if we lose sight of the sheer joy it brings us;
- while we strive for excellence in sport, it is more important to aim for excellence as human beings;
- many people are deprived of sport through lack of opportunity, prejudice, or vested interest;
- we have a responsibility to help and share its benefits.

Therefore, guided by our common values, we jointly pledge to be inspired by and aspire to the following principles:

Compassion

Use the power of sport to help others.

Share the benefits of sport to empower those who are poor and disadvantaged.

Respect

Use sport to build trust and understanding.

Respect your opponents. Through sport understand them and their culture more deeply.

Condemn violence in sport – on and off the field of play.

Love

Sport is for all.

Do all you can to help everyone take part in sport.

Do all you can to enable everyone to compete on equal terms.

Enlightenment

Sport has the power to transform lives and build character.

Learn graciousness in victory and perspective in defeat.

Apply the values you learn in sport to help you excel in life.

Balance

Sport has the power to help us make the most of ourselves.

So play it in the knowledge that it can revitalize you physically, mentally, emotionally and spiritually.

At every stage of life, play for fun, for health, for friendship.

Joy

Sport, above all, is about enjoyment.

So enjoy it! And remember, there is more to sport than winning, but when you compete, be and do the best you can, always.

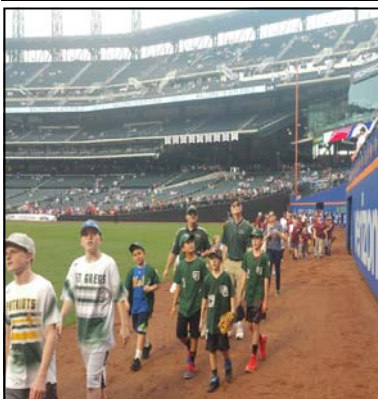

*"I ask that you live your sport as a gift from God,
an opportunity not only to bring your talents to fruition,
but also as a responsibility."*
